

Booth Sale Guidelines

Booth sales are a privilege granted to us by local merchants. If abused, even unintentionally, this could cause all Girl Scouts to lose the opportunity for booth sales at these locations permanently. Remind troops, Girl Scouts, and parents/guardians of the guidelines below.

Guidelines for ALL Booth Sales, Including Parent/Daughter

- All Girl Scouts must represent their Girl Scout Uniform at booth sales.
- Girls Scouts may only sell GSOC cookies at booths and no other items.
- All booth sale sites must be secured and scheduled through the Service Unit Booth Sale Coordinator.
- The Annual Permission slip covers all booth sales.
- Have permits on hand (or available digitally) if required by the city- check with the Booth Sale Coordinator.
- Print and bring copies of the Booked Booth Sale and Booth Sale Location reports from ABC Smart Cookies.
- Print and bring copies of the Booth Sale FAQs and prep girls to answer questions.
- Be at the booth sale location ready to set up at the reserved time.
- Remember to read notes provided by the SUBSC for specific locations. You can find the notes on the Booked Booth Report.
- Follow store guidelines provided by the Service Unit Booth Coordinator. You can find this information on the Booth Sale Location Report.
- Booth Sales at Sporting Events must be approved and secured through the Service Unit Booth Coordinator.
- Ensure that both the girls and the table are not blocking traffic going into or out of the store.
- Settle all disputes politely and calmly in the Girl Scout manner.
 - Do not involve the store manager
 - Contact your Booth Sale Coordinator immediately if there is a problem
 - SU Booth Sale Coordinators are to contact Council for escalated encounters or urgent matters
- Do not bring friends, siblings or tagalongs of any age.
- Cash and credit card payments are acceptable along with other payments of your choosing.
- Money must never be kept on the Cookie Booth table, it must be safeguarded by an adult at all times.
- As money accumulates, money must be concealed and stored safely in the trunk of a car.
- Use a counterfeit detection pen and light. Do not accept anything larger than a $20 bill.
- Follow instructions of the business on trash disposal. Remove trash before your booth ends.
- Display the Prop 65 card located on GSCookiesEtc.org.
- Print out, read, and bring copies of both the Booked Booth Sales and Booth Sale Location reports.

The Girl Scout Uniform

- Tunic
- Sash
- Vest
- Official pins and awards
- White shirt
- Khaki pants/skirt
- Scarf

Adult Girl Scouts at booths are encouraged to wear a Girl Scout shirt to show their pride in the movement.

If you NEED to cancel a booth sale you must cancel in ABC Smart Cookies 48 hours prior to scheduled booth. This will open the time slot to other troops and the Booth Locator will not advertise an empty location to customers. For emergency cancellations after the deadlines above, the troop must also notify your Booth Sale Coordinator.
